

NAME: MALUTI BETHUEL BUSH

SUMMARY

Quick learner with strong academic and technical skills, capable of adapting to diverse roles. Eager to broaden my horizons through continuous training and hands-on experience. Always ready to support team goals and help others succeed.

EXPERIENCE

B Sc in Software Engineering Student

Student ID: PA106/G/18040/23

Motivated software developer with a solid foundation in web and Android development. My academic journey at Kirinyaga University has been enriched by participation in developer communities, teamwork in development groups, and hands-on projects—all of which have solidified my passion for software engineering.
